Sdružení VIA (CZ)

Běh, narozeniny nebo svatba – to či ono – každá z těchto událostí může být vhodnou příležitostí pro dobrou věc a fundraising! Ano, peer 2 peer fundraising si posledních pár let prošlává cestičku také do České a Slovenské republiky.

Co jím opravdu je a kdy bude vše fungovat tak jak má právě pro Vaši organizaci? Je to opravdu pro každého? Která výzva bude úspěšná a jak získat toho správného ambasadora? Co určitě musíte udělat a čemu se raději vyvarujete?

I přestože všichni s peer 2 peer fundraisingem v Čechách a na Slovensku teprve začínáme, existují již desítky příkladů dobré (i té horší) praxe. Přijďte si poslechnout, co jsme se za poslední 3 roky naučili! Peer 2 peer fundraising už dávno není snem a funguje „úplně stejně“ v CEE regionu jako v západním světě.

Lukáš Hejna z Darujme.cz a Igor Polakovič z Darujme.sk budou sdílet konkrétní praxi z CZ a SK, inspirativní příklady, „lessons learned“ a také zkušenosti ambasadorů, kteří se rozhodli přes Darujme fundraisovat pro neziskové organizace.

Co se naučíme?

- Co je P2P fundraising v online prostředí a kdy dává smysl jej využít,
- Co fungovalo již dnes v České a Slovenské republice,
- „Lessons learned“ z výzev přes Darujme.cz a Darujme.sk + 2 – 3 příklady/case studies z prostředí CEE regionu.

Tento workshop je určen hlavně pro:

- Fundraisery,
- PR+marketing.

OPENING PLENARY: Fundraising Innovation*Jacob Finnbjørn Mølleose

Agency Scandinavia (DK)

In today's fast moving and competitive fundraising environment, we have to be focused and flexible, think creatively and strategically, spot opportunities and act quickly, take managed risks and learn from failure. All these skills are attributes of a successful entrepreneur – someone who can drive fundraising innovation. One thing is for sure that we continuously need to drive innovation for our charities – to engage the public, raise more money and make a bigger impact – faster. This opening plenary will take you through four insights essential for innovation, and that you need to integrate in your own organisation!

This opening plenary will be an inspiration for everyone.

CLOSING PLENARY: Envisioning The Year Ahead: Taking Your Learning Back To Your Organization*Kay Sprinkel Grace

Transforming Philanthropy (US)

How do we take what we learn at these conferences back to our organizations? How do we share with those who were not here the ideas we heard, the principles we understood, and the excitement of learning new ways for being more effective in our work? What are the challenges we will face in sharing our experience with others and using what we have learned to help implement courageous and bold ideas? Kay, with her three decades of experience as a professional (and speaking at and attending conferences like this!), will close our conference with an inspiring message about why we must return to our organizations with undiminished purpose: the strategies for retaining what we have learned, the importance of sharing it with others, and how to use your new ideas to ignite new ideas in others. A powerful final event for the conference – you will want to stay and hear it!

Learning outcomes:

As a participant you will learn:

- Strategies for putting your new ideas into practice when you return to your work,
- How to engage others in your organisation around these new ideas and overcome resistance,
- Techniques for inspiring change within your organisation using these new ideas as a platform.

The Science Of Successful Peer-To-Peer Fundraising

Jillian Stewart
PeerWorks (NL)

Arko Hoondert
PeerWorks (NL)

As someone who may be managing, developing or considering developing a peer-to-peer fundraising event or campaign at your organisation we wanted to invite you to our upcoming masterclass: “The Science of Successful Peer-to-Peer Fundraising”.

No, this won't be your typical fundraising masterclass (or science class for that matter!) It's an in-depth look at what it takes to inspire everyday people to fundraise on behalf of your organisation either through participation in an event you produce or through an online campaign that you create.

During the class we will feature examples and benchmarks from some of the most successful peer-to-peer fundraising event programs around the world. We will share insights and best practices which can be applied to your own program or strategy. And yes, we'll be getting a little geeky... but we'll also make it fun. □

So, whether you're developing a new event or campaign or optimising an existing one, you will walk away from this masterclass with pocket-full of inspiration, motivation and understanding of what your organisation's next step should be.

To keep the learning experience personal and effective, this masterclass is best suited for management-level staff... those that influence the budgeting and strategy of the peer-to-peer program. That way you will be able to network with other executives (event/program managers) who have similar resources, challenges and experiences.

The masterclass will be presented (in English) by PeerWorks Consulting. With over 23 years of fundraising experience from the USA and Europe, PeerWorks mission is to help non-profit organisations like yours raise money and awareness through peer-to-peer fundraising events and campaigns.

Learning outcomes:

- History, evolution and current (global) trends in peer-to-peer fundraising,
- Success factors and revenue drivers associated with peer-to-peer,
- Understanding of what your organisation's next step should be with starting a P2P event or campaign or optimising an existing one.

This masterclass is mainly designed for:

- Delegates who may be managing, developing or considering developing a peer-to-peer fundraising event or campaign at their organisation and are looking for support in putting it into practice.

Maximize Your Impact: Engage Volunteers Strategically In Your Mission, On Your Board And In Your Work

Kay Sprinkel Grace
Transforming Philanthropy (US)

Part I.:

Kay, a skilled professional who has also won awards for her volunteer work, knows how to work with volunteers. She will facilitate an open discussion about volunteers: who they are, where they come from, how to engage them, what they want from their volunteer work, what frustrates us about them, how to keep them from trying to do work they should not do, and how they can increase our impact significantly by being not only our best “ambassadors” but also our “back up work force.” Whether you are used to working with volunteers or have only considered it, there will be something in this session for you. Kay will draw from her several books on volunteers and volunteer boards and share her vast experience and insights including her widely used program for engaging boards.

Part II.:

The second portion of this masterclass will give participants opportunities to prepare a volunteer development (getting started) or volunteer training (getting them motivated) or volunteer engagement plan (getting them to stay) – the level of plan depends on how you are currently succeeding with your volunteer boards and with volunteers in other ways you have utilized their skills and interests. Discussion of the various plans will end the session, and there will be opportunities to exchange new ideas with colleagues.

Learning outcomes:

As a participant you will learn:

- Techniques for recruiting, engaging and retaining volunteers,
- How to interact with volunteers in ways that keep the staff/volunteer relationship clear,
- Ways to maximize the volunteer experience: for the volunteer, and for your organization,
- How volunteers increase your capacity for effectiveness as an organization and provide staff with a “back up work force”.

This masterclass is mainly designed for:

- Anyone who would benefit from working with volunteers – probably mid to senior level people or entry level people with responsibility, e.g., for special events.

Getting your message across*Emotional Fundraising In A Nutshell*Jacob Finnbjørn Møllemose

Agency Scandinavia (DK)

We will start by exploring how people act on emotions, not logic, and how you can use this to raise more funds from people. The backbone of every campaign is the message and emotional resonance that it creates. Examples from Denmark and the United Kingdom are included to demonstrate how the emotional backbone of your charity can be created. Be aware that this is a highly interactive session so please come prepared to participate as well as learn.

Learning outcomes:

- You will leave this session with a campaign developed by you and your colleagues.

At The Heart Of All Fundraising; A Case For Support

Jolan van Herwaarden

College of Change (NL)

Would you know what to say if you met Bill Gates and asked for his financial support? And can all your staff members, including any volunteers, convince, engage and appeal to people using the same words and sentences about your NGO and what it does? A Case for Support is at the heart of all fundraising and if you have a great one, you will be able to raise more money as well as your organisation's profile.

In this workshop we look at the theory behind a Case for Support, look at some great (international) examples and have fun trying it out in a speed-dating game. There will be practical tips on how to create a Case for Support as well as the chance to have a look at and share your own do's and don'ts. But most importantly, we'll look at inspiring ourselves and our potential donors with a great Case for Support that will make your organisation grow faster.

Learning outcomes:

- Learn what a Case for Support really is and how it should look and feel,
- Understand donor motivation and create your own Case for Support,
- Try out your Case for Support and get honest feedback.

This workshop is mainly designed for:

- Middle managers such as Fundraising Managers or Heads of Fundraising,
- CEOs or directors of an NGO.
- Board members and other volunteers.

Many of us do not have the luxury of a fundraising investment for the next few years. Unrestricted income is hard to come by! But, if we did have, we could afford to diversify our income, grow faster and pilot new income streams. In this workshop we look at the financial, commercial and strategic arguments of creating an investment in fundraising. We give practical tips on how to start small in order to grow fast. There will be examples of challenges within organisations but also how our donors see this. We will also look at communication and how to start from scratch.

Learning outcomes:

During the workshop participants will:

- Learn what an investment in fundraising can do for an NGO,
- Understand arguments and be able to convey these internally and externally,
- Gain a better financial understanding to strategically fund visions of their NGOs.

This workshop is mainly designed for:

- Middle managers such as Fundraising Managers or Heads of Fundraising,
- NGO CEOs or Directors,
- Board members.

Developing Fundraising In Developing Markets: Successful Cases And Inspiration

Flavia Lang Revkolevsky
Ader & Lang (BR)

João Paulo Vergueiro
ABCR (BR)

Brazil has over 290,000 charities, but its civil society is quite young – 70% of charities were founded after democratization in 1988. Since then they have been struggling to reach financial sustainability in an environment where asking – and therefore fundraising – is not a developed habit for charities and is often seen by the population as something wrong. Nonetheless, recent years have been very exciting for fundraising development in Brazil, with several successful projects undertaken, consolidation of the fundraising profession, growth of individual giving and much more. In this session we will share the Brazilian experience of investing in fundraising development, give successful campaign examples and draw some conclusions which could inspire Central and Eastern European fundraisers.

Learning outcomes:

- Participants will learn about the Brazilian fundraising sector and how it relates to Central and Eastern Europe in the sense that both regions have yet to consolidate the sector and promote charities' financial sustainability.
- We will also share examples and recent experience of fundraising undertaken in Brazil.
- Delegates will learn that promoting philanthropy is vital if we want to increase giving to charities.

This workshop is mainly designed for:

- Professionals starting fundraising programs within their organizations, from small or medium-sized non-profits.
